

Here are examples of words and phrases that indicate verbal consent:

- Yes
- I'm sure
- I want to
- Don't stop
- I still want to
- I want you to

Some examples of words and phrases that indicate that you do NOT have consent are:

- No
- Stop
- I don't want to
- I don't know
- I'm not sure
- I don't think so
- I want to, but...
- This makes me uncomfortable
- I don't want to do this anymore
- This feels wrong
- Maybe we should wait
- Changing the subject
- (or just staying silent when you ask!)

Learn more at <https://www.healthline.com/health/guide-to-consent#verbal-and-nonverbal-cues>

CONSENT

A Little zine
about consent!
for people of all ages

DO you know what CONSENT means?

Well, to have someone's consent means to have permission to touch / them.

you always need someone's consent before you touch them. so remember always ask for consent. And don't forget that if you touch someone a lot without consent, they might not be your friend.

Goodbye!

5

Imagine you have A invisible bubble
around you. Other people need your consent
to combine their bubble
with yours.

2

If they Don't have your consent and they still try to touch you,
your space bubble and
theirs will both break.

If someone touches
you without consent,
you can tell your safty network or your trust circle. For example, this is Lily's trust circle.

